

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Maison Félix-Leclerc launches its Fall programming this Friday!

Vaudreuil-Dorion, September 11, 2023 – Friday evening get-togethers at the Salon Maison Félix-Leclerc will resume this week as Stéphan Daigle welcomes Annouchka Gravel Galouchko, Stéphane Beaulieu, Catherine Michaud, Colin Miquet and Henriette Milard to his popular Cabaret littéraire, the first of a series of three to be presented this fall. These events serve as a platform for local authors to introduce their creative works to the public. Several artists and artisans from different disciplines are then scheduled to follow suit until the end of November.

The venue located at 186, chemin de l'Anse offers an intimate atmosphere that appeals both to the public and to the artists who perform there. A variety of musical performances will be presented by artists such as Réjean Turbide, Jean Petitclerc, Madeleine Royer and Jean-François Haché. CSUR la télé will present La Face cachée de l'île, a documentary on the collective memory of Terrasse-Vaudreuil directed by André Desrochers, Chantal Bédard and Lucie Asselin. Lucie Bisson will interpret Mon arbre à moi, once again demonstrating her talents as a storyteller. To add a little humour, Patrick Richard and Stéphane Lacas will present Un dernier tour de disque, a lively number featuring vinyls recorded by artists and humorists from the 1940s and 1980s. Finally, the theatre company Les Philanthropes will close the Friday get-togethers at the Salon with a reading of Michel Tremblay's musical Les Héros de mon enfance.

The full schedule and details for the Friday get-togethers are available at jesuismozaik.com.

Guided tours of Maison Félix-Leclerc

Throughout the fall, guides will again be available to offer guided tours of this historic house where the writer and singer resided from 1956 to 1966. Visitors are also invited to participate in a theme-based rallye and stroll through the house or gardens. Access to the site is free. Snacks and drinks are sold on site.

Maison Félix-Leclerc will be open from September 15th to November 26th according to the following schedule:

- Fridays, 5 p.m. to 9 p.m.
- Saturdays and Sundays, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
